

AS – IS THIS THING/PERSON		LIKE - SIMILAR TO
To say someone/something has/is that thing/function		To mean “similar to”
He works as a teacher She uses email as a way to keep in touch		It looks like a hamburger. It is like swimming. It feels like driving a car.
To mean “for example” (SUCH AS)		To mean “for example”
I’ve travelled to many different countries, such as India, Japan..		He enjoys many sports, like tennis, football....
To mean “because” & “the same as”
because	As tomorrow is Tuesday, we don’t have class. He can’t see you now as he is working
The same as	The exam was as I had predicted Things happened as I expected
To make comparisons with adjectives
Mike is as clever as my sister We are not as old as them
After describe & regard
The police described him as dangerous She is regarded as the best of all time.
In some expressions
As far as I know As far as I’m concerned As far as I see

